FURNISHING DEPT.

It is conceded that the elements of value in Scarfings are best understood by the makers of higher classes of goods. The shapes are sure to be right and the silk effects cannot be ap-proached in their richness and variety by houses hampered by limited opportunities for selecting. We don't confine ourselves to one style or one pattern-we have hundreds of styles and patterns, really a bewildering assortment to se-lect from-let your taste be loud or sedate, or medium, we can please you. We don't expect to sell every man in town his Ties, but we ought to, when we can sell Ties like these for

ONLY SIX, BUT A FINANCIER

Gen. Fullerton's 6-Year-Old Daughter Knows How to Keep Accounts.

Miss Rathbone Will Reside in Washington This Winter-Senor and Mme. Romero Back in the City.

General Fullerton bas one child, a most steresting little daughter, Mary is her name, who affords no end of amusement to her father's friends, by reason of her quaint sayings and bright ways generally. This little daughter is at present about six or seven years of age, but has already discarded the term nurse from her vocabu-lary, and dubbed as her maid the attendant who has piloted her through the nursery days. Accompanied by her maid, Mary nakes some wonderful voyages of discovery on the street cars and among the shops.

She is a born financier with a talent for keeping accounts that is truly remarkable in one of her age. She inherits a fortune in her own right, but because of her extreme youth, is given an allowanse. In the distribution of this she voluntarily keeps an account, including in it, from time to time, the sums for which she draws mon her father. Thus when her allowance runs short or she takes a notion to draw on her father, for any amount, she invariable prepares a little account of the same, which she plus upon the cushion on his bureau. Generally these slips of paper read: "General Fullerton owes Mary Fullerton 25 cents for car fare."

25 cents for car fare."

Not long ago she went to visit some of her relatives in New York, and was expatiating upon the beauties of Washington and the cheapness of living and things generally in this city. Suddenly she convolved her hearers by gravely remarking: "Diamonds are wonderfully cheap in Washington. Do you know I bought a beautiful diamond ring there in one of the shops for 5 cents?"

Miss Rathbone, who for a number of years has resided abroad, has returned with the members of her family, and will this season reside in the Rathbone house, on Lafayette square, that for some half a dozen years was occupied by the family of Senator Dates.

Miss Edes, who went abroad early in Miss Edgs, who went acroad early in the summer for a course of treatment for rheumatism at one of the leading German spas, will not sail for home before Novem ber. Should her improvement be slower than is hoped. Miss Edgs will spend the entire winter in Europe.

Serious Charges Involving the German Orphan Asylum.

MRS. TURNER'S COMPLAINT

She Declares Supt. Ermold Was Cruel to Her Boy-Ex-Secretary Springsguth Makes a Statement of His Reasons for Resigning His Office. Other Cases Cited.

The directors of the German Orphan Asylum, on Good Hope road near Anacostia, have an investigation into charges of cruelty on their bands. This will be in addition to the case of "Joe." the orphan who was recently brought back from a home in Virginia, as told by The Times.

The meeting of the directors for the purpose will be held next Monday evening at the office of Mr. Simon Wolf, who is a member both of this board of directors.

mber both of this board of directors a member both of this board of directors and of the board of children's guardinas.

The charges to be investigated are against Henry Ermold, superintendent of the asylum. The most recent is that of Mrs. Alice M. Turner, of 3056 M street, Georgetown. She says that her son, diseage, seven years old, was recently beaten so severely by Stopt. Ermold that his injuries may result in spinal disease.

town. She says that her son, George, seven years old, was recently beaten so severely by Supt. Ermold that his injuries may result in spinal disease.

It is protable that Mes. Turner's case will not be the only matter taken up by the directors. An effort will certainly be made to have them consider charges against the character of Mr. Ermold, made by Mr. R. Springsguth, of No. 613 North Carolina arcenic suitheast, ex secretary of the asylum. Rev. M. Ernit and others. These are based upon fectors from oner police officer of Metz. Germany, and reliate to the genicimen to be investigated.

Mr. Srkingsguth said last night: "I notice that my name has been mentioned as secretary of that institution. Allow me to state that i resigned that position, which I had held for five consecutive years on December I had. I resigned on account of the treatment of not only orphans and half orphans, but poor, defenceless wildows, by the man praced in charge of the asylum.

"I protested against these autrages and tried to defend children who I knew were innocent of wrong doing. As a consequence I was uttaked and insulted by the vice president and others so that nothing rensinted but for me to resign.

"Mr. Heary Ermold, the present superintendent, is a brother-in-law of the vice-president, Mr. J. Apouch, and o a member of the board of directors. He is sustained and subported in his action by these persons and their following; and weet to him who would dare to protest. He would be insulted and driven out as I was.

"Mr. Ermold reached this coountry some time in May, 1882. He did not know a Exercises of the Ordination of Rev.

Richard F. Jackson.
The ordination of Rev. Richard F. Jackson took place yesterday at the Vermont Avenne Rapilet Churche, at 3 o'clock p.m., the posters and delegates from the various language of the exercises.
Rev. Geo. W. Lee, D. D., paster of the Vermont Avenne Church, called the council to order and had the letter from the First laptist Churches, Cambridge, Md., making a coll for R. F. Jackson to be ordained as their paster.
The exercises consisted of a hymn by Rev. Wm. J. Howard, prayer by Rev. Shelton Miller, and Seripute reading by Rev. Wm. J. Hohmson.
Rev. Daniel Harris was elected moderator, Rev. J. C. Loveing, secretary; Rev. Richard F. Jackson, the candidate, was presented to the council by Rev. Geo. W. Lee for examination in the eighteen articles of the Faptist Discipline for the charge of the church. Rev. Mr. Jackson shoul a very rigid examination and after a secret ression was haid the council decided upon motion of Rev. Eishen Johnson that he should be ordained to the Geospel University.
The council then was entertained with a repust by the following committee in the lower anditorium of the church, the blessing being offered by Rev. Sandy Alexander.
Mrs. Fannie E. Lee, chairman, Lucretta Johnson, assistant chairman; Estella Epps. Hattie Fuller. Sinsan Gaidan, Alice Eaker, Kate Wright, Bettle Harvey, Mattie Glee.
Syvia Porter, Martha Tyler, Plorence Gordon and Roste Walkins.
Later to the upper auditorium of the church a special service was conducted with hymns by Rev. Geo. W. Lee, D. D., prayer by Rev. J. Loveing, or himation sermon preached by Rev. J. C. Bent from St. Mark, 16 chap, 16 verse; prayer by Rev. Wm. J. Howard, presentation of the Rible by Rev. Gro. W. Lee, Hand of Fellowship Rev. Father Alexander. an educator of orphans be should be excessed."

Mr. Springsguth has numerous instances, he says, where persons were mistreated by Supt. Ermoid. "Among these are Mrs. Christina Kraemer, who was the mother-ini-aw of the late Paul Wolf. Mrs. Ids Gatewood, of No. 343 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and Perry Hoffman, formerly with Mr. Carl Petersen, the jeweler.

He says that Supt. Ermoid made charges of fraud against Mrs. Gatewood and of arson against young Hoffman, neither of which was ever substantiated by facts. In Mrs. Gatewood's case the cause of his ill will was that she begged him to take proper care of her children and not mistreat them. She found her little girls at the asylum in midwinter scantily clad, and her little boy told her how he had been locked up in a dark room and kicked by Mr. Ermoid.

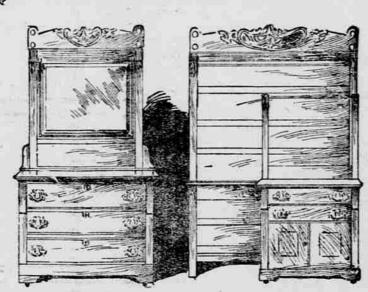

Vice President Appich says that corporal punishment is not allowed at the asylum, and that the charges against his brother-in-law are unwarranted. He says Ermoid has the support of President Graff, Director Simen Wolf, and of a majority, if not of all, the directors.
